Mike Kelly has spent over thirty years being involved with the club business, resort management business, and real estate development. He currently has ownership in two companies, 59clubUSA and Colt Mackenzie McNair.

He is a regular speaker at CMAA chapter meetings along with several golf management companies and clubs.

Mike was involved with Reynolds Lake Oconee in Greensboro, Georgia, The Boulders in Carefree, Arizona; Blue Ridge Mountain Club in Blowing Rock, North Carolina, Houston Oaks in Hockley, Texas and Waterfall in Clayton, Georgia. Each of these locations has significant real estate and club components.

He has a diverse background having been directly involved in the development of the real estate components and managing the hospitality operations of these communities. At Reynolds, his last role was Executive Vice-President of Development. He served in several other positions for that community in his twenty plus years there. He oversaw the development of six-championship golf courses, six clubhouses, four marinas, a 250 room Ritz-Carlton Resort and a host of other luxury amenities. There are over 4,500 members in that community.

He served as President of Reynolds Companies which had a two-hundred-million-dollar fund raised from high-net worth individuals. His responsibilities included oversight of the purchased assets, a management company, and a residential construction company. The management company was involved with properties such as Reunion in Orlando, Florida, Bella Collina, in Montverde, Florida, Hammock Beach in Palm Coast, Florida and The Canoe Club in Fayetteville, Georgia.

Mike was the CEO of a luxury club and community called Houston Oaks in Hockley TX. He was responsible for all Club operations, real estate sales and amenity development within this community

Prior to starting 59club USA and CMM, he served as the COO for Medalist Golf, Inc., a luxury golf course builder. Projects he was involved with included River Oaks Country Club, Monterrey Peninsula Country Club, Bluejack National, The Greenbrier Resort, Quail Hollow Club, Carmel Country Club and all of the courses being developed by Johnny Morris (founder of Bass Pro Shops) in Branson, MO.

Mike is a graduate of Michigan State University's School of Hospitality Business and was the founding Chairman of an award-winning charter school (Lake Oconee Academy) where he served in that role for over seven years.
